Dear Mr. Dulles,

I understand that Khrushchev was given many gifts when he went to Moscow.
Can C.I.A. find out for me what he truly did with these gifts; are they being used by Russian top chemists to find new compounds to use in their Arms against America Project. Where these gifts given to Khrushchev to make sure he did not go directly to Cuban Russian leaders in the possible form of Political Insurance? I think C.I.A. should look into this & I am not charging anyone with anything but feel men must fight Communism.

Sincerely yours,

Harold P. [Signature]
